Celebrate Urban Birds!

www.CelebrateUrbanBirds.org

“It is a fabulous way to get outside and enjoy nature. You don’t have to know a lot. You don’t have to have special equipment. You can just ENJOY!”

~ Anna Sanford, Aurora, Illinois

You can make a difference and have fun!

- Learn about, watch, and record birds
- Share your observations with scientists
- Participate in gardening activities and the arts
- Give back to your community by improving local habitat

You have the power to re-connect your family with nature! Spend time together outdoors and do something worthwhile!

Who can participate?

Anyone, anywhere, anytime, at no cost.

How long does it take?

10 minutes.

What do I get?

Beautiful posters, seeds for planting, instructions, observations forms, and more!

It’s good for your community, it’s good for birds, and it’s good for you!
